THIERS AT THE COURT OF ENGLAND, New York, September 14.—The World's London special says that yesterday afternoon Earl Granville called on Thiers, at the French Embassy. Although Thiers came fully qualified by the French Government, he could not be received in Downing street, as the English Government will not yet recognize the Republic. Earl Granville, inwever, conferred with him as the representative of the de facto Covernment of France. Sami-officially

I have seen so many misfortunes betain France, a country allied in so many ways to England. If my earnest wishes could be of any avail, peace would soon restore her to her former prosperity."

Thiers replied: France is quite able and determined to defend herself against all her foes; but she earnestly desires peace; and it is for that reason that by me she now asks England, upon whose action all the powers of Europe are now waiting, to join them in securing for her such terms of peace as she can honorably accept. She will accept no terms that are not honorable."

If Prussia kept the field the defensive. If Prussis kept the field and bid France to come forth and light her, though utterly unprepared for such a struggle, yet that would have something manly about it; but to set her armies on a city crowded with women and children, and only protected by half armed husbands and fathers—if that was considered fair, human conduct by the King, then Paris had only to submit to her fate and perish, calling on heaven to witness that they did not provoke the martyrdom. It was not to be
